

Alaska Pioneer Homes Seeks Administrator for Ketchikan Facility

“Providing elder Alaskans a home and community, celebrating life through its final breath”

Are you interested in leading a team of caregivers in helping elders and seniors have the best quality of life possible? Do you believe that elders living with Alzheimer’s disease and related dementias should receive the highest level of person-centered care where their preferences and desires are the driving force in their care? If you are enthusiastic, motivated and a strong leader who wants to make a difference in the lives of elders living in an assisted living home, consider applying for the Administrator position at the Ketchikan Pioneer Home!

An ideal candidate would be someone who prioritizes care and love for elders and possesses the ability to think creatively in leading the home to fully utilize its resources.

KPH is home to pioneers from across Alaska’s history, including homesteaders, miners, bush pilots and others who have helped build Alaska. The home is licensed as an assisted living home with accommodations for 45 elders. The home is Eden Alternative® registered and follows the Positive Approach to Care for maximizing quality of life for the elders. KPH is committed to providing compassionate care to residents and the staff are passionate about meeting the diverse needs of elders, from those who are fully independent to those with physical and memory care needs.

Individuals interested in the Ketchikan Pioneer Home administrator position must hold a bachelor’s degree in a related field and should contact the Alaska Pioneer Homes Division Director, Heidi Hamilton, at heidi.hamilton@alaska.gov.
