

COMPENSATION FOR Cultural Support Services

All case participant(s) (parent, grandparent, aunt/uncle, child sibling) with an active in-home or out-of-home OCS case plan are eligible to engage in services with a Cultural Support Services Provider that has been identified in collaboration between the Tribe, parent, and OCS.

SUPPORTING GROWTH AND HEALING THROUGH CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

- Families have specific strengths and cultures that are valued
- Community partnerships are essential to engaging and supporting families

For questions on how to establish an individual to be a provider, please reach out to OCS Statewide ICWA Coordinator Tasha Yatchmeneff at tasha.yatchmeneff@alaska.gov
